- TENG Hsiao-ping, political commissar of the 2 Field Army, and CHIEN Keng, chairman of Yunnan, have signed an agreement with the Burmese Communists as follows:
 - The Chinese Communists will supply the Burmese Communists with light and heavy infantry weapons, ammunition and military supplies.
 - b. The Chinese Communists will send political w kers to assist Burmese troops.
 - c. The Burmese Communists will advance north to the Yinto (藏 名) Lake area and the Yunnan border to establish a base there, They will then be prepared to occupy the northern area of Wentso (温 佐) as far as the Mytkyina Railway and thus be in a position to receive supplies from the Chinese Communists.
- The Burmese Communists have sent Te-ch'in-tan-tun (德 女 丹數) as their representative to the Chinese Communists in Kunming.
- Comment. Source reported that cooperation between the 25X1A Chinese and Burmese Communists had become closer since the start of LI Mi's counter attacks in Yunnan. See for a similar speculation on Sino-Burmese action to curb LI Mi's influence in the border area.
